

Description du lieu apartment decorated in a modern style with large living room, 3 windows overlooking the courtyard, one of which overlooks an old industrial brick fireplace. Kitchen open to the living room with central island. Small bathroom and bedroom with window overlooking a residential garden. The building is accessed by a courtyard in a very old style, buildings dating from the 16th century. Very pretty interior courtyard with a staircase leading to the apartment all in painted wood. Stained glass windows on the door giving access to the courtyard and artists' workshops in glass roofs. Located in the Bastille district.

