

Description du lieu

From the 18th century, Leeuwerger Castle and its estate are still inhabited and conserved by our family.

In a remarkable state, the castle still private, its dependencies and its park are now exploited for many years for commercial purposes: events, weddings, incentives, team-buildings, conferences, filming ... We wish today to open a new page in its evolution and make it discover to you.

Equipped with neo-classical outbuildings, stables, a large swimming pool, a French park with bridges, ponds, sphinges and a superb open theater (unique in Europe), the place is ready for many uses.
